

Bill Lloyd

President and CEO

Port-A-Cool, LLC

Bill Lloyd brings to Port-A-Cool, LLC, an extensive background of more than 36 years in the industrial distribution field with experience in operations, management, sales and marketing. His major responsibilities include growing sales, business development and working with major, national and independent distributors through the company's team of national and district sales managers and business development directors. With his expertise and diverse background, he provides vision and direction for expanding all areas of Port-A-Cool, LLC, to the next level of sales and service.